

Capture the Board

Player 1

Player 2

Directions: Players will take turns rolling the two dice and create an array using the numbers rolled. They will record the number model inside their array. Players must start their array in their corresponding corners and then may add their next array anywhere as long as it shares a side with another one of their arrays. Player with the most covered space on the board is the winner.